About the Speaker

Michelle Nameth Baskin, M.Ed., BCBA, COBA founded ABA Outreach Services to coordinate home ABA (Applied Behavior Analysis) programs, Social Skills Groups, and provide consultation in schools for children with behavior needs. ABA Outreach integrates ABA techniques into fun and engaging activities for children. Her experience includes 15 years utilizing Applied Behavior Analysis in center-based and home-based programs in California, Oregon, and in Ohio. She received her undergraduate degree from Kenyon College and her Master's degree and Intervention Specialist License from Cleveland State University. Michelle taught in a cross-categorical special education classroom in a public elementary school and was an adjunct professor at Cleveland State University.
